DiscussIT Topic 6: Where is our country headed?

Discuss IT Topic: Over the last week, our country has had growing concerns on immigration bans, border safety, and executive orders that remind us of issues that have been plaguing our country for years. Now that Trump has been elected President, there has been people threatening to blow up the White House, human right protests, and a plethora of other sensitive subject matters that are very compelling to individual groups of people. Why have these issues come up now as we head into a time in which it seems no one is going to be happy with the outcomes? Will this create a split in this country and place citizens against one another when it comes to their views? In your opinion, what other topics are at the forefront of concern? Explain.

Response: Everyone has different views and our going to have discussions as things start to change. Due to the fact that that people get easily offended to those that have a different opinion than them we are going to have a “split in this country and place citizens against one another when it comes to their views.” People are already “threatening to blow up the White House, human right protests, and a plethora of other sensitive subject matters that are very compelling to individual groups of people.” That goes to show you that this will cause a split in this country.
